

donald g. copper

biography

Born: 17, September, 1957
Education: BArch, Virginia Tech, Blacksburg, VA, 1980
One-year study, The Architectural Association, London, 1978 – 79
Residence: Chicago, Illinois, USA

Donald Copper is an Architect in Chicago, and Principal of GREC Architects, with work executed throughout the United States and in the Arabian Gulf region (see www.GRECstudio.com).

Mr. Copper is a self-taught, life-long visual artist. His work includes painting, drawing, works on paper, screen printing, collage and small sculpture. A large selection of recent work can be viewed online at: www.neoimages.net/artistportfolio.aspx?pid=1870.

group shows

The Art of Architects Wood Street Gallery, Chicago
Slow Food Inaugural Art Show Belloc-Lowndes Fine Art, Chicago
SOFA Chicago Belloc-Lowndes Fine Art
SOFA San Francisco Belloc-Lowndes Fine Art
SOFA New York Belloc-Lowndes Fine Art
8 Ball 4Art Gallery, Chicago
BLUEperiod Thomas Masters Gallery, Chicago

collections

Many of Mr. Copper's paintings and works on paper are in corporate and private collections.

www.doncopper.com